

XM Satellite Radio and its traffic and weather channels are of great benefit because it is relatively instant and without commercial interruption. It should remain an option for those of us who want it.
Please reject NAB's petition 04-160.

There are more important events happening in our world today than to worry about who is broadcasting timely and useful traffic and weather information.

Thank you for your time.

Best Regards,
Ronald G Mattioli